HIGH SCHOOL

REFLECTIONS OF 1974

To the Class of 1974

As superintendent of the Armstrong School District I extend my sincerest congratulations to you on your graduation. For many of you, graduation from high school will mark the beginning of formal education for a career yet to be chosen. For others, it will mean finding a job and beginning a lifetime of gainful employment. Regardless of the individual choices each of you will make within the next few months, I trust that our schools have prepared you to handle adequately the tasks that lie ahead. In essence, this is what your education has been all about--to help you make the transition from childhood to adulthood and to become a responsible member of your community.

When you think of a 5 year GRADER you think of someone that's sorta mixed ↑ until he finds out who's who and what's what. You might notice a freshman when you're walking ↑ the and say "just Think what he'll look like in 4 years!" Little Eighth grade girls come in all sizes and shapes
But they're all cute and unsophisticated (You don't become sophisticated 'til you're a junior). Sophomores Sometimes have a hard time. Upperclassmen gives them a rough on the players the last week of the season and make them do dumb things
But by Thanksgiving Underclassmen sort of blend in and become part of the groove. Everything runs smooth — 'til senior when the underclassmen "R" ready to
"B" recognized and so they run for stucco
And the Juniors put together a prom which a lot of come to, and they have a lot of "FUN" and That's what counts, 1.2.3. By May, seniors "R" fed ↑ with school, like everyone 1 elow, and are ready 2 spend the summer growing ↑ and learning about life.

HOME COME

WE C M B C!
FRHS "the best"

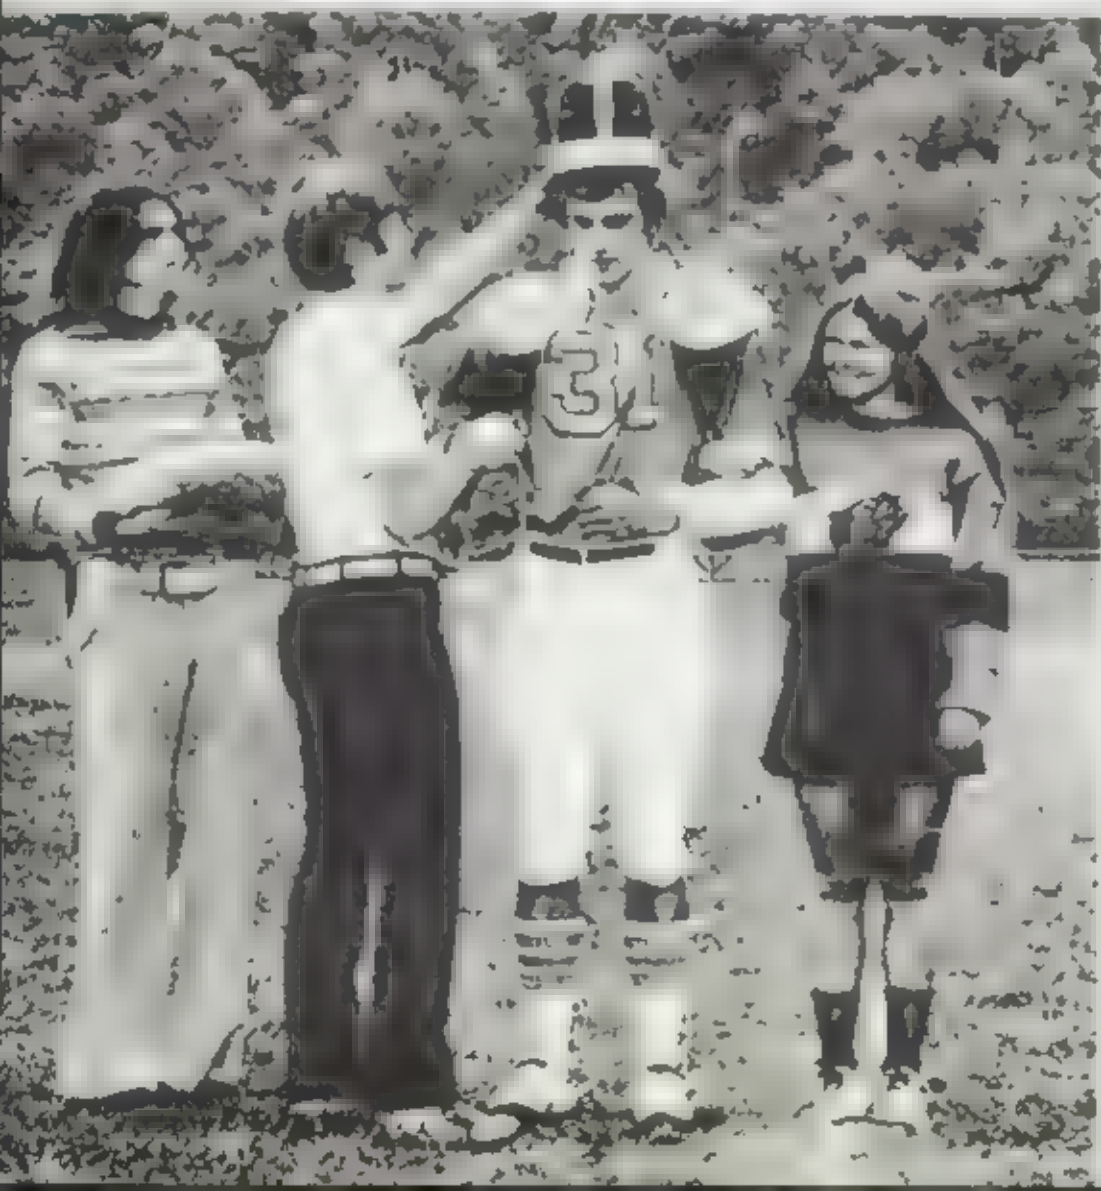

October 13, 1973. You might not have noticed especially if you were only a seventh grader, that the people walking around slapping each other on the back went to East Brady last year. They were the alumni. October 13, they came home. Besides them, you saw Susie Logue become the 1973-74 homecoming queen, and Bud Stanley reigned as king. While the many spectators listened to the band play, "Proud Mary". You watched the game from time to time, too, and you probably noticed that we lost to Brockway 13-16. Later you went to the Homecoming dance at the school and forgot about the defeat and just had a good time--

THE WAY
IT—WAS . . .

JUST YOU —N— ... ME

This year the prom was a-way. You didn't get out of class to decorate, at all, but you did get to go to a real classy place, the Sheraton-Inn, complete with an indoor garden. The Junior's selected the theme, "Just You -N- Me", for the 1973-74 prom. And the courtyard suddenly turned into an enchanted garden, in which the prom king & queen were crowned. The court was presented and King: Ed, and Queen: Annie reigned at the roval affair.

Graduation always seems a little silly unless you're a senior. Then, despite your too long gown and too big cap, and that tassel hanging in your eyes, you feel strangely important. On graduation night you are somebody. You get a diploma with your name on it and you shake hands with the mayor; but most important, you alone are somebody. They call your name because you've done something on your Own.

Your parents take pictures and make movies of you and friends shake your hand, and some even cry.

People give you a break, and for once, everyone is on your side. You deserve it. You've graduated. You're out now. The class of 1974. You made it!

YOU MADE IT;

Memories light the corners of my mind
Misty water-colored memories of the way we were Scattered pictures of the smiles we left behind Smiles we gave to one another for the way we were

Can it be that it was so simple then,
Or has time re-written ev'ry line?
If we had the chance to do it all again,
Tell me, would we? Could we?

Memories may be beautiful, and yet
What's too painful to remember
We simply choose to forget
So it's the laughter we will remember
Whenever we remember the way
we were,
The way we were.
